New – Sporty Church returns next Sunday at 2pm. We will be thinking about our care for the planet. Please wear something green.

New- Monday 4th July - Temple Sheen Road house group will be exploring the elements through the Bible, poems and paintings, beginning this month with 'earth'.
1.30-3.00pm via zoom: for link and notes contact Judith – email: russenbergerjudith@gmail.com

COVID-19 update. St Mary's Consultative Group which met last week, agreed that we can all now make our own decisions as to how to share the Peace. So please be sensitive to one another. If you would prefer a non-tactile sharing of the Peace please make that clear to others by continuing to wave. Hand sanitiser will remain available and, as throughout this difficult period, no one should feel under pressure to anything which makes them feel unsafe or uncomfortable Season of Lay Ministry: Bishop Christopher has declared the 1st Sunday after Trinity (19 June) to the 4th Sunday after Trinity (10 July) as a Season of Lay Ministries. We give thanks for everyone who serves our three churches in a myriad of different ways. If you want to explore the possibility of becoming a licensed lay minister such as a reader or SPA (Southwark Pastoral Auxilliary) or would like to improve your current skills or learn new ones by undertaking a training course, please speak with the clergy.

Revd Heather Peter's last service at Christ Church will be Evensong at 5pm today. Do come as we thank her for all she has given over the last nine months.

Next Parish Link for July and August: Will be in church next Sunday. If you have any items you would like in this edition can you please advise – Anne Reeves – email: anne_reeves@madasafish.com, or phone: 8876 6616 today.

Holiday at Home: If you would like to take part in Holiday at Home from 1st - 5th August, at All Saints, please complete one of the booking forms which are in all three churches or contact Penny Cowell - 8878 2434 or email: cowellpenny@hotmail.com

INTERCESSIONS:

Mission and Community Concern: Freedom From Torture (UN International Day in Support of Victims of Torture). Caring for the victims of torture and ensuring that survivors of torture and organised violence who arrive in the UK have access to the means of rehabilitation and receive quality services that meet their needs.

Wider Church Concern: For Matthew Watts as he begins his ministry among us, for Sylvie Collins-Mayo as she prepares for her ordination as priest and for all those ordained this Pentecost.

World / UK Concern: For the victims of the earthquake in Afghanistan: for those who have lost loved ones, for those injured, for those who have lost homes, livelihoods and all they possessed. For search and rescue teams as they look for survivors in remote villages.

Community: For local shops and businesses in this difficult economic climate.

The sick and those in need: Angela Robinson, Jeane Dunsford, Peter Rivett, Isabel Howlett, Alban Clarke, Joy Clarke, Lawrence Bell-Wright.

Those who have died: Hazel Acus, Elaine Brown.
